

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Foundation for Pluralism and the World Muslim Congress are organizing the 2nd Annual Holocaust remembrance on Sunday, January 28th, 2007.

On this Holocaust Remembrance Day residents of the Dallas / Fort Worth Metroplex come together as humans of all affiliations to learn to understand the suffering of The Holocaust; to develop an open mind and an open heart towards each other in the process of healing and repairing the world.

What	2 nd Annual Holocaust Remembrance
When	Sunday, January 28 th , 2007 - 4 to 7 PM
Where	Hotel Crowne Plaza, 14315 Midway Road, Addison, TX 75001
Who	Americans of all faiths, races and ethnicities
Refreshments	Provided prior to and after the event
Admission	Complimentary to all attendees
RSVP	Please write "Holocaust" in subject line and send an email to: confirmattendance@gmail.com

Peace is caused by each one of us, just as atrocities are also initiated by individuals. It is our duty to cause peace, to initiate peace and to work for peace. Each one of us is responsible to create a better world for ourselves and for human kind. We have to work toward the belief that saving one life is like saving the whole of humanity.

In 2006 the United Nations proclaimed January 27th as a Holocaust remembrance day to commemorate the greatest atrocity the world had ever witnessed. In support of that, the Foundation for Pluralism organized an event on Thursday, January 26, 2006 to accommodate the Jewish Sabbath as January 27 fell on a Friday in 2006. Information on last year's event can be found at http://www.foundationforpluralism.com/Images/HolocaustDay/HMD2006_ProgramReport.asp

Contact: Mike Ghouse (214) 325-1916

Foundation for Pluralism & World Muslim Congress.

2665 Villa Creek Drive, Carrollton, TX 75234

Sponsorship is available